Rules and Regulations for the Clydesdale Horse Society Winter Fair

Disclaimer of Liability to Exhibitors

1. The Clydesdale Horse Society shall disclaim liability for the death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the Society, its servants or agents, or any person whilst entering or leaving the Showground. The Society shall not be responsible for death, injury, disease or loss caused to any exhibitor or by any vehicle brought by the exhibitor to the showground or car park. Acceptance of the foregoing is a condition of entry. Exhibitors are advised to insure against fire and other appropriate risk as regards their own property and against third party claims.

Entries

2. Entry fees are as stated. The correct fee must be remitted with the entry form or entries will not be accepted. No refunds will be given.
3. The Society reserves the right to refuse entry and return the entry fee to any person.
4. Horses exhibited must be owned by the named exhibitor at the date of closure of entries and the horse passport must reflect that ownership. Entry forms must be signed by that owner/exhibitor. All owners/exhibitors must be current members of The Clydesdale Horse Society. All mares and stallions must be registered and in the case of fillies be in the process of being registered with The Clydesdale Horse Society at the entry closing date. Colts and geldings must be entered as Produce or be in the process of being entered as Produce with the Society. Horses entered in the Grade-Up Appendix, Colts out of a Grade-Up mare or horses of unknown pedigree are not eligible to compete.
5. Exhibitors are solely responsible for the accuracy and eligibility of their entries. Exhibitors must prove the correctness of their entries if required to do so by stewards.

Protests

6. All protests must be made in writing to the Secretary of the Society before 4pm on the day of the Show. This must be accompanied with a £50 deposit which will be returned if the protest is upheld. The protest will be considered by the Executive Committee of the Clydesdale Horse Society in consultation with stewards.

Disqualification

7. The Chief Steward has the power to disqualify any entry. There is no appeal against any disqualification made by the Chief Steward or by the Judge.

Mode of Dress

8. Handlers should wear a shirt and Clydesdale Horse Society tie. White coats MUST be worn in the ring.

Rules and Regulations for the Clydesdale Horse Society Winter Fair

Number of Attendants in the Ring

9. Only two persons will be permitted in the ring with each horse, namely the person leading the horse and one attendant for dressing out purposes.

Champion of Champions Class

10. The champion Clydesdale from each show affiliated to the Clydesdale Horse Society in 2021 will be eligible to enter. The competition will be open to all champions including geldings.

If the champion at any local affiliated show has already qualified, the reserve champion at that show will not be eligible to enter.

There will be an entry fee of £10 per entry and any exhibitor can qualify as many horses as they want but a horse can only qualify once a year.

COVID

All exhibitors and spectators are required to comply with the Covid Protocols laid down by our hosts, Lanark Agricultural Centre, and in keeping with relevant Scottish Government Laws and Regulations in force on the day of the Winter Fair.
